1. At the naval barracks in Gdynia a start will be made before the end of the year on building several units of living quarters.

2. A group of buildings to be used as naval headquarters in Gdynia has been completed and taken into service. The group consists of three 5-story buildings. One of the buildings, which is on ul. Waszyngtona, has two gates, of which one is closed and the second guarded by an armed sentry. The Pass Office is in the building facing ul. Pulaskiego. No notices were seen on the buildings to indicate by whom they were occupied.
